

Trinity Lutheran School

“Growing in Mind, Character, and Faith”

Week of April 16, 2018

Follow-up to Dress Code Meeting: Every few years, it’s a good idea to review the dress code. As principal, I believe that issues with how children dress begin in the home. Knowing that styles change over time, your input is valuable as we look forward. Ultimately though, we follow the guiding principle for Christians that we present ourselves modestly. I did not receive any feedback from parents that we change our current dress code. Thank you for your input!

Follow-up to Mary Bleckwehl: Minnesota author, Mary Bleckwehl, visited Trinity School on Wednesday, April 11. She introduced her new book, Claire’s Hair, to the Preschoolers-2nd Graders. Afterward, she talked to students in Grades 3 - 8 about the writing process and being an author.

Follow-up to BOSE Meeting:

1. The 2018-19 Trinity School Calendar was approved.
2. A review of long term planning was tabled to May.
3. BOSE currently has an empty seat and is looking for one more member.
4. Pastor Redfield proposed a scholarship program for families who take the Bible Information Class with him; BOSE approved the concept.
5. The next BOSE meeting is May 8, 2018.

BOSE Members Serving You: Gary Bandel (Chair), Curtis Raddatz (Vice-Chair), Bruce Nielsen (Secretary), and Jeremy Schmitz (Financial Secretary)

Yearbook Order Forms: Yearbook order forms were sent home on Wednesday, April 11. Orders are due by Tuesday, April 17. Please note that we only put in one order, so late orders cannot be accepted. The cost for the yearbook is $16.00 each. Your payment is due when your order is placed. Please pay with either cash or check. [Checks may be made out to “Trinity”.] Questions may be directed to Mrs. Anderson. Thank you!

Child Care Opening: Stacy Sellnow, a congregational member of Trinity, has daycare openings for school age children this summer. If you are interested, give her a call at 873-2977 for more information.

Trinity’s Website: We thank Denis Ahearn for the many hours he put into designing and setting up Trinity’s new Website. Please visit it soon at www.school.trinitybelleplaine.org and let us (Denis Ahearn or Dan Whitney) know if there’s anything else you’d like to see included.
