

Trinity Lutheran School

“75 Years of Growing in Mind, Character, and Faith”

Week of October 21, 2019

Basketball Parent Meeting: Please note there’s a meeting on Monday, Oct. 21, at 5:00 p.m. for the parents of our basketball players.

Harvest Celebration: Trinity’s second annual Harvest Celebration is Saturday, Oct. 26, from 3:00 to 6:30 p.m. Lots of fun fall activities have been planned, including kids’ games, a bouncy house, hay wagon rides, live music, and trunk or treat. [So far at least seven trunks will be filled with treats!] Tickets for the meal at 5 o’clock are available for $8 per ticket or 2 tickets for $15; kids under 5 eat free. For advance ticket sales, please call 952-873-6545.

Halloween in Downtown BP: Just a reminder that Trinity School will be represented in the BP Plaza on the corner of Main and Meridian streets late Thursday afternoon, Oct. 31, for the city-wide trick or treating event. All children are encouraged to stop by for Halloween candy.

PTO Game Night: Trinity’s PTO is sponsoring a Game Night for all families on Friday, Nov. 1, from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. Please bring your family’s favorite board game and a snack or appetizer to share; PTO will provide drinks.

PTO’s Evergreen Fundraiser: Thanks to everyone who submitted order forms for Christmas Greenery from Gerten’s. Please reserve time on Friday, Nov. 22, between 5:00 and 7:00 p.m., to pick up your orders at Mr. Whitney’s garage.

Parenting Help for Homework Woes

Are any of your families having trouble adjusting to the new school year? Have the homework wars started? How much help should parents provide to their children on their homework? If these questions resonate with you, read the October column of Heart to heart: Parent conversations from Forward in Christ magazine. Two experienced teachers and parents provide their perspectives on how much help parents should provide with homework and share other insights. Visit forwardinchrist.net to read and share these articles and others that offer support for today’s Christian parents.
